SoulCycle Inc., a Delaware corporation having a business address of 609 Greenwich Street, New York, New York, 10014 (“SoulCycle”), believes that it will be damaged by registration of the subject mark of Application Ser. No. 86/729,567 (the “Challenged Application”), SOUL & SPIRITS, and hereby opposes that application. On information and belief, the owner of the Challenged Application is Grip the Mat, LLC, a limited liability company organized under the laws of the District of Columbia (“Applicant”).

As grounds for this opposition, SoulCycle alleges as follows:

1. SoulCycle is an internationally acclaimed and rapidly expanding fitness and lifestyle brand, with a focus on inspirational coaching and personal development, that also offers a successful and widely publicized line of clothing and apparel items, as well as bags and other related merchandise.
2. SoulCycle currently includes sixty-two (62) studios located in the United States in cities including New York, Los Angeles, Boston, Washington D.C., and Coral Gables and Miami, Florida, providing fitness and exercise services and selling a range of products, including clothing, bags, and accessories. Clothing and related items, including stationary exercise bicycles, are available in SoulCycle studios and/or online at <https://www.soul-cycle.com/shop>.

3. SoulCycle's in-studio fitness classes emphasize community and a shared experience, guiding riders through an inspirational, meditative experience that's designed to benefit the body, mind, and soul.

4. SoulCycle's in-studio fitness classes emphasize group bonding and the infusion of a festive energy, upbeat music, and social interaction into more traditional types of exercise.

Would You Like a Cocktail With That Workout?

By COURTNEY RUBIN MARCH 7, 2012

AT first glance, the dimly lighted space on 20th Street in the Flatiron district on a recent Saturday night could have been any New York nightclub. There's a clipboard-wielding bouncer in front of a velvet rope, a live D.J. spinning a "Lady Marmalade" remix, and a line to get in. But look more closely: The D.J.'s turntable is perched on a dozen step-aerobics risers, the crowd is dressed in exercise gear, and the buff bouncer, who has the body fat of a Diet Coke, is asking, "Do you have any injuries?"

This is the gym-as-nightclub, where the shots are antioxidant, the highs are exercise-induced — and no one sweats being denied entry for wearing sneakers. The perspiration, of course, comes once inside. The gym (in this case Barry's Bootcamp) calls the event a "dance party," but it's actually the Kim Kardashian-beloved — and lacerating — mix of treadmill sprints and toning, this one held at 7 p.m. on Saturday and spiced up with an '80s-style theme, with mirrored disco balls and a pair of go-go dancers clad in fluorescent spandex gyrating on a step-aerobics bench.

Plenty of people forgo happy hour to fit in exercise, but now gyms are making it so that clients don't have to choose. They're offering evening workouts — some as late as midnight — featuring bubble machines, party favors and chances to mingle, platonically or otherwise. Case in point: Joey Gonzalez, the dance party's instructor, makes sure to include an abdominal exercise that requires a partner. “If there’s someone you’ve got your eye on, now’s your moment,” he half-jokes when introducing it.

Party workouts, as many of them are called, attract a range of fans, including gym regulars warding off workout ennui and recent transplants to New York who don’t want to try to strike up friendships in bars. They also lure time-crunched young professionals who have outgrown the club scene — but whose idea of a good night out is a little racier than dinner and a movie.

“When things get crazy, my workout is what always falls through the cracks,” said Denise Kreft, 30, a beauty publicist and former clubgoer who’s now a regular at SoulCycle’s Friday night ride in Union Square.

“But this is like a show, a party and a way to burn a ton of calories all in one,” Ms. Kreft said. “And it’s the same price as a couple of glasses of wine.”

Her favorite class features glow sticks and an instructor who makes a grand entrance on a skateboard; other SoulCycle evening rides have live D.J.’s, followed by Champagne, smoothies and — in the case of a “Glee”-themed event — a mock bake sale (all the treats were free).

“The only difference between these places and actual nightclubs is the liquor license,” said Scott Melker, 35, a club D.J. who has found a niche tapping his D.J. network to supply unreleased remixes and unique mash-ups to boutique fitness brands like Flywheel Sports. “These instructors work so hard compiling playlists they probably spend more time listening to music than they do exercising. When you’re in class, they’re the ones driving the party.”

For gyms, that means scheduling their most popular instructors, not rookies, to “host” the evenings.

Devin Murphy, 28, who attended the $32 Barry’s Bootcamp workout wearing gold lamé leggings purchased especially for the occasion, said: “It sounds crazy to be so excited about working out on a Saturday night, but Joey is such a great trainer and his classes are almost impossible to get into. And the level of detail makes it like a wedding — this one-time event you don't want to miss.”

Party workouts are so popular they have acquired another nightlife trapping: waitlists. Many sell out within minutes. And new companies are springing up just to meet the gym-and-tonic demand.

Uplift, a 10-month-old company, offers $40 “Raising the Bar” workouts, chasing 45 minutes of cardio and strength training at parks around the city with wine or beer at a nearby bar. (It will open a studio in the Flatiron district in March.) Another startup, KiwiSweat, organizes one- to four-day fitness pop-ups like kickboxing on the set of a Lower East Side theater and an R-rated midnight spin class at Chelsea Market (all the songs had explicit lyrics).

The trend isn't limited to New York. In Houston, Jennifer Brugh-Tanguy, 41, founded Nightclub Cardio in March 2009, after feeling frustrated when the pink metallic Jimmy Choo stilettos she wore to a dance club prevented her from “really grooving” enough for it to double as a workout. She now has 160 instructors in three states leading $10 “dress-to-sweat” evening dance workouts, complete with laser lights, D.J.'s, martini glasses of chilled vitamin water — and a maximum of three moves per song, so no one's heart rate drops while pausing to figure out the choreography.

The atmosphere may be light-hearted, but the workouts can be some of the week's most intense. The parties are promoted heavily, and gym owners say that props and party favors, rather than being a distraction, heighten anticipation — and effort.

“It's not ‘I'm turning up for a workout,’ it's ‘I'm turning up for the Studio 54 party or the Madonna party,’ ” said Julie Rice, 41, a SoulCycle founder. “It creates this energy, and people really come with their A game.” (Ms. Kreft added: “Classes fill up in two minutes. After you fight for a spot, you're not going to waste it.”)

On a recent Saturday, Jesse Alexander, 37, a Flywheel instructor, encouraged a sellout Flatiron district class to cycle faster than they ever had before, calling out: “It's Saturday night. You want ecstasy? This is it in its purest form.”

Over at SoulCycle, around 10 p.m., the instructor, Laurie Cole, yelled: “It’s past my bedtime, so we have to move,” before leading a heart-in-the-throat sprint up a steep hill.

Hilary Rainey, 23, for one, appreciated Ms. Cole’s lead. “I chose SoulCycle over a lot of other things tonight and no regrets,” she said.

And, she added, “I know I won’t regret it in the morning.”

Subject: RE: 023896.0200 Serial number 87078362: Received Your Trademark/Service Mark Application, Principal Register

From: TEAS@uspto.gov [mailto:TEAS@uspto.gov]
Sent: Tuesday, June 21, 2016 11:20 AM
To: PTO <PTO@fkks.com>
Subject: 023896.0200 Serial number 87078362: Received Your Trademark/Service Mark Application, Principal Register

1. YOUR MARK: SOULCYCLE (Standard Characters, mark.jpg)
The literal element of the mark consists of SOULCYCLE.
The mark consists of standard characters, without claim to any particular font, style, size, or color.
2. YOUR SERIAL NUMBER: We have received your U.S. Trademark Application and assigned serial number '87078362' to your submission. A summary of your application data is provided at the bottom of this message and serves as your official filing receipt. Please keep a copy of this information for your records. All correspondence concerning the application should reference your assigned serial number.

Please read all of the important information below. Not every mark is registrable with the USPTO and we do not refund the application filing fee(s) if a registration does not ultimately issue.

3. RECEIVING E-MAIL COMMUNICATIONS/FILING DOCUMENTS ON-LINE: Because you have authorized receipt of correspondence by e-mail, please make sure that your server will accept USPTO e-mail and not treat it as SPAM. If you must submit correspondence to us, please use the Trademark Electronic Application System (TEAS) forms, available at <http://www.uspto.gov/trademarks/teas/index.jsp>. Applicants who filed their application online using the lower-fee TEAS RF application form must (1) continue to submit certain documents online using TEAS, including responses to Office actions (see http://www.uspto.gov/trademarks/teas/required_tegas_filings.jsp for a complete list of these documents); (2) accept correspondence from the USPTO via e-mail throughout the examination process; and (3) maintain a valid e-mail address. TEAS RF applicants who do not meet these three requirements must submit an additional processing fee of $50 per international class of goods/services. However, in certain situations, authorizing an examiner's amendment by telephone will not incur this additional fee.
4. KEEP YOUR ADDRESS CURRENT IN USPTO RECORDS: We do not extend filing deadlines due to a failure to receive USPTO mailings/e-mailings. You must update the correspondence and/or owner's address if a postal address and/or e-mail address changes, using the form(s) available at <http://www.uspto.gov/trademarks/teas/correspondence.jsp>.
5. WARNING ABOUT UNSOLICITED COMMUNICATIONS: You may receive trademark-related communications from private companies not associated with the USPTO. These communications frequently display customer-specific information, including your USPTO serial number or registration number and owner name, and request fees for trademark-related services, such as monitoring, listings in international publications, and document filing. None of the companies offering these services are affiliated with the USPTO or any other federal agency. All official correspondence will be from the "United States Patent and Trademark Office" in Alexandria, VA, and if by e-mail, specifically from the domain "@uspto.gov." Please consult the "Warning" page on the Trademarks section of the USPTO's website for further information about unsolicited communications and to view representative examples of them. For general information on filing and maintenance requirements for trademark applications and registrations, including fees required by law, please consult www.uspto.gov, contact the TrademarkAssistanceCenter@uspto.gov or telephone 1-800-786-9199.

6. LEGAL EXAMINATION PROCESS: Your application is now pending examination. In approximately 3 months, your application will be assigned to a USPTO examining attorney for review. The application cannot mature into a registration unless all legal requirements are met, and many applications never satisfy these requirements and therefore never register. The overall process can take up to 18 months.

7. CHECK STATUS AND REVIEW DOCUMENTS OR YOUR APPLICATION MAY BE UNINTENTIONALLY ABANDONED: You must check the status and review all documents associated with your application at least every 3-4 months using Trademark Status and Document Retrieval (TSDR), available at <http://tsdr.uspto.gov/>.

Promptly e-mail the TrademarkAssistanceCenter@uspto.gov or telephone 1-800-786-9199 (select option #1) if an Office action (letter from the USPTO) or notice has issued for your application that you did not receive or do not understand. Failure to respond timely to any Office action or notice may result in the abandonment of your application, requiring you to pay an additional fee to have your application revived even if you did not receive the Office action or notice.

8. FILING ERRORS: If you discover an error in the application data, you must file a Voluntary Amendment at <http://www.uspto.gov/trademarks/teas/miscellaneous.jsp>. Do not submit any proposed amendment to TEAS@uspto.gov, because the TEAS technical support team may not make any data changes. Please wait approximately 7 days after the filing date of your application to submit a Voluntary Amendment in order to allow for initial upload of your application data into the USPTO database. The assigned examining attorney will determine the acceptability of any Voluntary Amendment during examination. Not all errors may be corrected. For example, if you submitted the wrong mark or if the proposed correction would be considered a material alteration to your original filing, it will not be accepted. In this situation, your only recourse would be to file a new application, with a new fee and no refund of your original filing fee.

9. REQUEST FOR REFUND AND/OR CANCELLATION: Since your application has already been assigned a serial number, please do not contact TEAS@uspto.gov to request a refund or to cancel the filing. We will only cancel the filing and refund the filing fee if the application does not meet minimum filing requirements. The fee is a processing fee that the USPTO does not refund, even if your mark does not proceed to registration.

In the limited situation where you inadvertently filed identical applications, one immediately after the other, because no confirmation of the first filing was received, please provide both serial numbers to the technical support team at TEAS@uspto.gov.

10. SelectUSA: The United States represents the largest, most dynamic marketplace in the world and is an unparalleled location for business investment, innovation, and commercialization of new technologies. The U.S. offers tremendous resources and advantages for those who invest and manufacture goods here. Through SelectUSA, our nation works to promote and facilitate business investment.
